Some Bible memory verse methods

Flashcards: Create a flashcard with your verse's reference on one side and the full verse on the other. Cover the verse with your hand, and uncover it as you recite it . . . or, uncover it if you get stuck! Hand the card to someone and have them quiz you.

Partner Quizzing: A family member or friend learns the same verse and you quiz each other.

Erase-A-Word: Write the verse on a whiteboard/chalkboard and erase one word at a time, saying the verse after each word is erased.

Picture It: Draw a picture of your verse. Or, draw symbols that represent the various words/phrases of the verse.

Sticky Notes: Write your verse on a few sticky notes. Post them on various spots where you will see them often.

Verse Puzzle: Write your verse on a blank sheet of paper with enough room between the words so you can cut out each word. Mix up all the pieces of paper and then try to put your verse in order. Store the puzzle in an envelope.

Window/mirror: Using erasable marker, write your verse on a window or mirror. Get your parent's permission first.

Music: Create a song or rhythm for your verse (with hand gestures, if you want).

ALWAYS MAKE SURE TO INCLUDE THE VERSE'S REFERENCE! (LIKE, "JOHN 3:16")
